

Dublin Business School (DBS) in conjunction with the Higher Education Authority (HEA) under the Government 'Springboard+' initiative is providing jobseekers the opportunity to reskill or upskill for FREE under a range of approved and accredited courses identified as providing training that will improve the future skills of the labour force, in a range of sectors where sustainable employment is predicted to rise as the economy recovers.

DBS is offering the following part-time Level 6 & 7 Special Purpose Awards commencing end of March 2017:

- Certificate in Business Skills
- Certificate in Digital Marketing
- Certificate Fund Accounting
- Certificate in Programming
- Diploma in Big Data for Business

Participants can study the above courses for free without losing their social protection entitlements, and there is no minimum period of time in which participants are required to have claimed social protection payments. Individual programme entry requirements apply.

DBS is also offering the following full-time Level 8 ICT Skills Conversion programmes commencing early April 2017:

- Higher Diploma in Science in Data Analytics
- Higher Diploma in Science in Computing (Software Development)
- Higher Diploma in Science in computing (Web & Cloud Technologies)

➤ Higher Diploma in Science in computing (IT Infrastructure & Networking)

Participants can study the above courses for free whether they are receiving Social Welfare payments or not. Academic entry requirements apply*.

For more information on Eligibility and Entry Requirements, visit the DBS Website.

We would be delighted to meet with clients to give a presentation regarding Springboard+ and ICT skills courses or to chat informally with individuals or groups at any time and in a location that suits.

Apply online today via the DBS Springboard Webpage or contact our Admissions office on 01 417 7500 or springboard@dbs.ie

*Minimum entry requirement for applicants for ICT programmes is a Primary Honours Degree (Level 8) in cognate discipline from a recognised third level institution or equivalent qualification.

Make sure you come along to our

Springboard+ Open event on Thursday 23rd
February @ 5pm

You can learn more about this initiative, the courses, meet with Lecturers, Careers Advisors and Student Services.

Dublin Business School
excellence through learning