

SOCIAL WELFARE SCAM ALERT

Concerns have been raised with the INOU that phone calls are being made where the caller claims to be from Social Welfare and offering to transfer the receiver's social welfare payment directly into their bank account in the event that their local post office may close.

Please note that Social Welfare / the Department of Employment Affairs and Social Protection are making NO such calls.

And please remember NEVER to give your bank details to anyone over the phone.